

Pendleby Hall

CONGRATULATIONS

Thank you for considering Skendleby Hall for your wedding day.

Skendleby Hall weddings specialise in designing and creating bespoke weddings for up to 50 people in a magnificent Grade II listed mansion. It is situated in the Lincolnshire Wolds, an area of outstanding natural beauty.

The Hall occupies a secluded position on the edge of the village of Skendleby. It has two acres of beautifully kept gardens and woodlands and enjoys stunning views, making it an ideal setting for your perfect day.

The Hall originally dates from the mid 18th Century and was built by the Brackenbury family. The Victorian additions such as the stunning clock tower were designed by renowned architect S S Teulon while the Gainsford family were in residence. It has recently been completely renovated to modern day standards whilst preserving many of its original features.

The Hall is a unique wedding venue as it is exclusively yours for 3 nights. It is a fully equipped self-catering property consisting of 13 bedrooms, 12 en-suites and 5 reception rooms.

YOUR WEDDING DAY

CEREMONY

We have 2 rooms licensed for your wedding ceremony.

The Music Room - An ideal setting to take your vows. This comfortably seats 50 guests and comes complete with a grand piano.

The Drawing Room - A beautiful historic room with many original Georgian features.

PHOTOGRAPHS, CHAMPAGNE & CANAPES

Skendleby Hall grounds - Our stunning grounds provide perfect photo opportunities.

The Billiards Room - A spacious room used to serve canapés and champagne before or after your ceremony.

WEDDING BREAKFAST

The Drawing Room - Seats up to 50 guests for a sit down meal or buffet.

The Dining Room - Seats up to 26 guests or is ideal for a larger buffet.

EVENING RECEPTION

Skendleby Hall in its entirety - The Drawing Room will be set up for your evening entertainment. A buffet can be laid out in the Dining Room. The further 4 reception rooms are available for your guests to enjoy.
